Truman Forces Win First Housing Votes

See Passage As Opposing Ranks Split

Washington, June 27—(AP)—Grabbing complete control, house administration forces today won a series of smashing victories for President Truman's big housing bill and drove hard toward passage tomorrow.

The Truman forces won all the major tests in the first voting on the bill. Poes cried "socialism" and warned against bigger federal expenditures. But the Republican opposition was badly split, with some seeking a compromise bill, and others opposing any bill at all.

After five hours of wrangling, the House quit for the day.

Rayburn Predicts Passage

Passage of the housing measure, which Speaker Rayburn predicted by tomorrow night, would hand Mr. Truman the first major victory for his "fair deal" domestic program. The senate passed a similar bill April 21 by a 57 to 13 vote.

Democratic strength not only beat down substitute bills that would have killed the authorization for publicly-owned housing, but also defeated 10-Republican substitute that proposed to add a privately-owned housing feature.

Shut Off Debate

Administrationists first assumed the upper hand when they forced a shut off of debate by a narrow 111 to 106 margin. Apparently not as many southern Democrats were opposing the administration measure as some Republicans had expected.

Then, in rapid order, the House defeated 137 to 99 and 110 to 78, respectively, substitutes by Reps. Davis (D-Ga.) and Coudert (R-N.Y.) that, while providing funds for city slum clearance, would have prevented appropriation of billions for publicly-owned housing that Mr. Truman wants. Davis' substitute also would have provided some funds to aid veteran and farm housing.

Alert Cashier Leads To Arrest Of Counterfeiters

Cleveland, June 27—(AP)—An alert blonde cashier in an east side movie theater spotted a fake bill which led to the smashing of a counterfeit ring in Washington, D. C., today.

Mrs. Elaine Jean Spradlin, 26, took in a $20 bill Saturday night at the theater (Keith's city 103th). It seemed "damp and thick," so she called to a special policeman, Myron Dedon. The latter picked up the man who had submitted the bill, after chasing him into a parking lot.

Today, as George James Strombos, 28, Cleveland, he was charged with possessing and passing counterfeit bills.

The secret service took it up from there.

Mrs. Spradlin's alertness and the arrest of Strombos led to the raid today in Washington, said J. J. Cassidy, agent in charge of the secret service office here.

Twins Scalded In Bath Given By Babysitter

Hammond, Ind., June 27—(AP)—Police are investigating a report that a baby sitter gave a bath so hot that an 18-month-old girl died of burns today.

Carol Gora, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gora, died in St. Margaret's hospital this afternoon. Her twin brother, Robert, remained in critical condition from a similar scalding.

Police refused to disclose the name of the 14-year-old baby sitter whom the father accused of giving the scalding bath last Thursday evening. Nor did they say whether she will be held for juvenile authorities.

Deputy Coroner B. W. Chidlaw said the girl told him she had felt the bath water and declared it was not "too hot." He said she reported she put the twins in the bathtub, went to a bedroom for their nightclothes, then took them out of the water when they screamed.

The children's father, a 26-year-old pipefitter's helper for Sinclair Oil Co. in East Chicago, told Chidlaw the baby sitter's brother was waiting when he and his wife returned from a shopping trip. Gora said the boy told him of "skin coming off the babies."

Dr. Michael L. Allegretti, the family physician, said the twins had third degree burns over half their bodies.

Land now combined as the United States once belonged to Spain, France, England, Holland and Sweden.

St. Laurent, Liberals Reelected In Canada

Toronto, June 27—(AP)—The Liberal party government headed by Louis St. Laurent won a vote of confidence from the Canadian people today, sweeping to victory in nationwide elections for 262 House of Commons seats.

The liberals thus got a mandate to continue for five more years the government they launched in 1935. They defeated the progressive conservatives, whose national leader is George Drew, former premier of Ontario. A third party, the socialist CCP (Cooperative Commonwealth Federation), was an also-ran.

The trend became evident as first returns came from the maritime provinces, where the popular vote favoring the liberals ran at the same ratio as in that party's big sweep of the 1946 elections.

Newfoundland, a new province voting for the first time in a national election, also went liberal, five seats to two.

The party that controls the House of Commons names the prime minister—Canada's nearest equivalent to the U. S. presidency—and the cabinet. St. Laurent and Drew ran for office only as members of the House—and both won re-election in their own districts.

Various members of the cabinet also were re-elected in their home constituencies. These included C. D. Howe, minister of trade and commerce who shares with St. Laurent most of the control of the Canadian government.

High Court Holds Off Eisler Appeal

Share-The-Work Proposal Studied By Coal Operators

Pittsburgh, June 27—(AP)—A huge bloc of northern and western soft coal operators was reported tonight to have flatly rejected John L. Lewis' share-the-work plan.

Pittsburgh, June 27—(AP)—Coal operators from the north and west, clustered themselves today in a hush-hush conference on John L. Lewis' new share-the-work plan.

They emerged tight-lipped from a long meeting with George H. Love, president of the Pittsburgh Consolidation Coal Co. and a leading negotiator in current contract bargaining with Lewis' United Mine Workers.

It was reported the operators flatly turned down the three-day week proposition on the ground it constituted restraint of trade under the anti-trust act. The reports said the negative answer would be given John L. Lewis in White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., tomorrow. No operator sources could be located who would confirm or deny the reports.

Alejandro Lerroux, 5 Times Premier Of Spain, Dies

Madrid, June 27—(AP)—Alejandro Lerroux, anti-monarchist revolutionary and five times premier of republican Spain, died today at the age of 63.

The family announced that Lerroux, who had proclaimed his agnosticism through his life, returned to the Catholic church and received the sacrament on his deathbed. He will be buried in Madrid's Catholic cemetery.

Lerroux was reported ill in Lisbon, Portugal, in 1945. He had been in exile there since the Civil war. In 1947 Generalissimo Franco gave him permission to return to Spain.

A life-long Republican he had been exiled several times by King Alfonso XIII. Each time he returned, his power as chief of the radical Republican party grew greater.

Lerroux was strongly opposed to Socialism and Communism as he was to the monarchy, and for this reason left-wing groups prevented his election as president of the republic after the throne was overthrown in 1931.

Several of the grants will carry forward investigations of the "milk factor" which causes breast cancer in mice.

Seventy-two of the grants, totaling $820,985 were for continuation of work now under way. The others were for new projects.

Atkinson told Sheriff J. Chris Johnson that he had seen the reflection of the burning cross Sunday night, but was unable to explain several already considered dead.

Officers brought the charred cross to Mount Vernon and displayed it on the courthouse lawn.

The action and others today left only about 260 Senate-approved bills for the House to work on during its final three days.

Among bills formally killed by the single tabling action tonight were several already considered dead.

Two thousand Stevedores struck today. They wanted their $1.40 a hour pay boosted 32 cents.

Taft Threatens Vote Against Labor Law

Washington, June 27—(AP)—Senator Taft (R-Ohio) served notice tonight he will vote against his own "national emergency" strike-settling machinery if the Senate strips it of injunction powers.

That may happen, in crucial senate roll calls due tomorrow. Two or three votes may make the difference.

If the court injunctions go out, and if Taft helps vote his own plan into defeat, President Truman's original labor proposals on this point will stand untouched. They call only for a 30-day "cool-off" period in emergency cases.

This was the situation on the eve of a crucial day in Mr. Truman's campaign to repeal the Taft-Hartley act and replace it with a modified Wagner act.

1. Senator Taft proposes to amend the Truman plan by giving the government power not only to halt strikes by injunction, as the Taft-Hartley act provides, but to seize plants for up to 60 days.

2. Senator Holland (D-Fla.) proposes to amend that by striking out the seizures. His plan is not rated a high chance of success. It will be voted on first.

3. But Senator Lucas (D-Ill.), the majority leader, would strike out Taft's injunctions and keep the plant seizure powers only. He may put this over. He told reporters Mr. Truman "does not object" to this solution.

Chicago Victim Describes Engel As Vicious Man

Chicago, June 27—(AP)—One of the women who liked Sigmund Engel well enough to give him $8,000 described the dapper swindler today as a cold-blooded, calculating and vicious man.

As Mrs. Reseda Corrigan, 39-year-old red-haired widow, gave her revised estimate of the little man she was going to marry, Engel mopped his brow and patted his unshaven face.

The scene between Engel, 73, and his latest victim occurred in a Felony courtroom packed with women anxious to see the charmer who has bilked well-to-do widows of millions during a half century of operations.

Within a few hours after Judge Matthew D. Hartigan held Engel to the grand jury under $50,000 bond, he was reported named in a true bill charging operation of a confidence game.

When told of the grand jury's reported action, Engel quipped: "For a confidence game? No, that's wrong. You mean a love game."

Wabash Expected Over Flood Stage After Rainstorm

Indianapolis, June 27—(AP)—The Wabash river was expected to surge about five feet over flood stage at Lafayette tomorrow as a result of Sunday's super rainstorm at Logansport.

As Cass county residents cleaned up after their flash flood, chief Meteorologist Paul A. Miller of the Indianapolis weather bureau said damage along the Wabash probably will be limited to lowlands.

Miller said the "hump" rolling down the Wabash "won't cause any people to move."

Surface water backed up by Logansport's 652-inch rain had receded, leaving three bridges demolished and several roads washed out. Twenty-two families were back in their homes after fleeing the flash flood from Goose creek.

Cigarette Price Fixing Bill Sent To Stevenson

Springfield, Ill., June 27—(AP)—Cut rate sales of cigarettes will be outlawed in Illinois if Governor Stevenson signs a bill which got a final okay in the legislature today.

The bill would fix cigarette prices. It would forbid sales at "below cost." Below cost is defined as four percent above what wholesalers pay and 10 percent above what retailers pay for the smokes.

The senate passed the measure today, 31-6. The House passed it last month, 105-1.

Sponsors say it will help protect small retailers by outlawing "loss leader" prices offered by bigger retailers.

Opponents claim it will raise the price for many smokers and result in more buying from outside the state, where they can be bought cheaper and without paying the three cents a package Illinois tax.

Ward Employee Accused Of Fraud

Chicago, June 27—(AP)—An employee with 23 years of service at Montgomery Ward & Co. today was accused of defrauding his company of $110,000 through falsification of invoices.

James C. Creighton, 46, of Fox Lake, Wis., a merchandiser in the Ward shoe department, appeared in Felony Court, charged with operating a confidence game. His bond was set at $50,000.

Also arraigned were Frank Fichtler, 38, of Chicago, Creighton's brother-in-law, and Edward Weiss, owner of Chicago shoe company.

Senate Refuses Key Stevenson Money Bill

Communists Seize Czech Church Offices

By Richard Kasischke
Prague, Czechoslovakia, June 27—(AP)—Catholic informants said tonight the communist government and its Catholic Action committee had seized virtually all church consistories in the country.

The consistories are the highest administrative offices in archdiocese and diocese and usually are situated in or near the palace of the archbishop or bishop. They print and distribute pastoral letters and directives of the hierarchy and handle such administrative matters as assigning priests.

The informants said many priests who resisted the spreading government confiscation of church property and offices were arrested.

The report followed the reading in many church pulpits yesterday of a pastoral letter from Archbishop Josef Beran and the bishops. This summed up church grievances against the communist government and charged the regime with deliberately plundering and persecuting the church.

The letter obviously had been prepared and printed outside the archbishop's palace because the archbishop's own consistory has been under police guard nearly two weeks.

From the government-occupied consistories, communist action committees were said to be issuing orders and directives of their own composition. One such directive demanded that a stop be put to excommunicating and otherwise punishing persons who joined the government's Catholic Action.

Coplon Defense Makes Final Bid

Judge Rejects Acquittal Plea; Both Sides Rest

Washington, June 27—(AP)—Federal Judge Albert L. Reeves rejected a final defense bid for acquittal today as both sides rested in the nine-week-old espionage trial of Judith Coplon.

The case is expected to go to the jury on Wednesday.

Miss Coplon's 65-year-old mother, Mrs. Rebecca Coplon of Brooklyn, broke into unrestrained sobs, rocking back and forth on her chair in the crowded federal courtroom, as Judge Reeves quickly turned down a series of defense moves for freedom.

The defendant, who has stormed and ranted but never yet given way to tears throughout the long trial, stared anxiously at her mother and kept her lips pressed tight.

Judge Reeves also denied a charge by Defense Counsel Archibald Palmer that "entrapment in every shape and form" lay behind the government's long shadowing and final arrest of Miss Coplon and her alleged Russian sweetheart, Valentine A. Gubitchev, 32, in New York last March 4.

Palmer shouted that because FBI agents who seized Miss Coplon and Gubitchev admittedly had no warrant, the arrest was "illegal." He stressed that FBI who testified they trailed Miss Coplon did not claim they ever saw her slip any secrets to Gubitchev.

Defense and prosecution attorneys will open their final arguments tomorrow, with two hours set aside for each.

Then, after instructions on points of law by Judge Reeves, the jury will begin deliberating its verdict.

Father Of Four Children Admits Slaying Boy, 4

Lansing, Mich., June 27—(AP)—An unemployed father of four children gave himself up today in the brutal sex slaying of four-year-old Walter (Peewee) Eaton.

Police Inspector Paul Taylor said the man, Dudley Beatty, 29, admitted the killing and said, "I knew you'd get me and I couldn't take it."

Beatty was charged with murder of the child in a warrant signed by Municipal Judge Paul C. Younger.

Beatty lives in a cheap rooming house only a block from the Eaton home.

"I knew him and his family," Beatty told Taylor. "I don't know why I did it."

Beatty, haggard and nervously smoking a cigarette, walked into police headquarters and said: "I want to give myself up."

His entrance was a complete surprise. Authorities had been questioning a mentally deficient youth in Racine, Wis., over the week end. They said the youth, Ray Ernest Lamphear, 23, had first confessed to a confidence game. His bond was set at $50,000.

Also arraigned were Frank Fichtler, 38, of Chicago, Creighton's brother-in-law, and Edward Weiss, owner of Chicago shoe company.

There were reports that the Grand National Assembly (parliament) might be called into extraordinary session to cope with what was called a "revolutionary movement" by the opposition Democratic party.

Nickel Gas Tax Bill Set For Vote

Springfield, Ill., June 27—(AP)—The Illinois Senate late today refused to pass one of Gov. Stevenson's key budget bills to extend the state sales tax to construction contractors.

The bill is one of three sales tax widening proposals which Stevenson said he needs to obtain $50,000,000 in the next two years to carry out his spending plans.

Before the roll call was completed, Democrats postponed further consideration of the measure. This move kept it technically alive for another try later.

At the time of the postponement, the bill had received only 22 of 26 votes required for approval. Sen. E. A. McRovitz (D-Chicago) was making a speech in favor of it when the roll call was interrupted.

Stevenson said Saturday he will "be obliged" to cut his bid programs for education, cities and health if the sales tax plan is not enacted. The House already has approved it.

Expected Gas Tax Passage
The bill for a nickel gas tax today was sent on its way toward an expected passage roll call Wednesday or Thursday in the Illinois House.

The roads and bridges committee pushed the bill out to the House floor without recommending either its passage or defeat. The vote was 18 to 15.

Girl Who Shot Waitkus Found Mentally Ill

Chicago, June 27—(AP)—A prosecutor reported today an alienist's finding that the girl who shot ballplayer Eddie Waitkus has a split personality and should be in a mental hospital.

The girl is Ruth Steinhagen, 19, year old typist who had a secret crush on the Philadelphia Phillies' first baseman. She lured him to her hotel room June 15 and shot him with a .22 caliber rifle.

Waitkus is recovering. He may leave the hospital Wednesday. Doctors say he'll play baseball again but that it's too early to say if he can rejoin his team this season.

Eddie vows that he will.

Edward T. Breen, assistant state's attorney, disclosed the report on Ruth's mental health by Dr. William H. Haines, head of the Cook county (Chicago) behavior clinic.

Dr. Haines termed her a schizophrenic, or one who has a split personality, and she is "commitable to a mental hospital."

Breen said the case will go to the grand jury. If Ruth is indicted, he said, sanity hearing will be asked for her in criminal court.

Bridge Collapse Hurls Motorist Into Creek Bed

Peoria, Ill., June 27—(AP)—A 40-year-old wooden bridge near the village of Oak Hill collapsed today, dropping a motorist and his car 40 feet to the shallow waters of the Kickapoo creek.

The motorist, Harold Conley, 24, of Peoria, struggled up the 40-foot embankment and walked about one-third of a mile to the home of Floyd Conon. Conley then was taken to a hospital where he was found to have severe chest injuries. His condition is fair.

Oak Hill is on Route 8, 15 miles northwest of Peoria.

Five minutes before Conley drove over the span in his coupe, a tractor and a combine had crossed the 100-foot structure. The entire span and both approaches went down with the collapse. Only two or three inches of water were in the creek.

PRISONER RECAPTURED

Peru, Ill., June 27—(AP)—Peru police today recaptured a 16-year-old boy who escaped from the State Training School for Boys at St. Charles June 18. They arrested the boy, Stephen Dedich, at his home in Peru.

MR. ROPER DOES SOME CHECKING

Elmo Roper, one of the poll-takers left holding a bag of jumbled statistics after President Truman's 1948 election upset, has just completed a post-mortem study of that dopest's debacle.

The analysis provides no comfort for Roper. Nor does it offer any startling new explanation of the 1948 outcome. Rather, it tends to confirm the heretofore widely circulated but largely unsupported theories as to why Mr. Truman won.

Those theories, briefly, are that overconfident Republicans stayed home, that usually Democratic union workers turned out in greater force and that farmers switched away from their normal GOP allegiance.

Roper's findings were based on close canvass of results in seven major cities, 112 industrial counties and five predominantly rural mid-western states.

He discovered that in all but one of the seven cities the upper-income voters stayed away from the polls in larger numbers last year than in 1944. These groups tend to vote Republican. And in fact, those in that bracket that did vote plumped more heavily for the GOP than they did four years earlier.

On the other hand, returns showed that in six of the seven cities lower-income groups went to the polls in stronger force in 1948 than in 1944. And they voted more heavily Democratic this time.

The percentage increase in these voters was not as great as the percentage drop among upper-income voters. Roper concluded that had it been so the Democrats would have scored a whopping landslide, for lower-income people of course are far more numerous.

In surveying 112 industrial counties, Roper found almost without exception a substantial gain in voting turnout. As with the lower-income groups in cities this vote tends to be Democratic, and in 1948 it actually was.

As for the farm, states the Democrats' percentage of the total two-party vote jumped well above 1941 levels in all five studied. The total turnout, however remained about the same.

Roper did not learn whether these results meant normally Republican farmers had crossed over, or whether they simply stayed home and let their Democratic neighbors carry the day.

The net advantage of all these developments lay clearly with the Democrats.

Thus far the Roper analysis looks sound enough. But it seems too early to suggest, as he has done, that these factors may establish a long-range trend toward the Democratic Party.

One election doesn't make a trend. To be sure it followed four previous Democratic triumphs in a row. But the 1948 contest was extremely complex. The outcome was compounded of a puzzling mixture of many political attitudes.

Some of those attitudes were held by independent voters who feel no bond with either party. They could shift quickly. Even more firmly settled notions can be thrust aside as witness the farmers' performance.

The factors that appear to have been decisive in 1948 may be changed markedly in 1952. Indeed, if there is any enduring lesson in last year's election, it is probably the unpredictability of the voting public. Trends there are, yes but obviously they can be reversed, interrupted and distorted by the uncertain actions of voters.

Thieves Of Farm Equipment Parts Busy In Jersey

Jerseyville—Thieves are busy in Jersey county taking advantage of the opportunity to remove and carry away parts from tractors, combines and other farm equipment left standing overnight on the job in the fields.

Lee Davis, who operates a farm five miles northeast of Jerseyville, reported to Sheriff C. E. Wedding Saturday morning the theft of parts from a tractor which had been left standing overnight in a field where wheat was being combined. Davis reported the thieves removed a battery, generator and other parts from the tractor.

It is difficult to apprehend parts thieves, for they often operate over a range of one hundred miles, observers report. Their mode of transportation is generally an old truck, and they travel several hours journey from their home base before starting to remove parts from equipment left in fields overnight.

This applies of course to the theft who is making a business of parts stealing. There is also the local thief who may steal parts for his personal use or to sell in a small way to some wildcat repair man or shop.

ILLINI GIRLS' STATE-ER

NEWS OF ILLINI GIRLS STATE WRITTEN BY ITS EDITORIAL STAFF.

World's Best And Beautiful Can't Be Seen Or Touched!

CITIZENS, STAFF THANK RESIDENTS OF JACKSONVILLE

The 432 girls who have been citizens of the 1949 Girls State join with staff members and counselors in a word of appreciation to the people of Jacksonville for their gracious acceptance of our mythical state. The personnel of MacMurray College, the local business firms and individuals at the local points of interest covered in the city tours have been most cooperative. Every Girl Stater will long remember a pleasant week spent in Jacksonville.

Phelan County's Program Features Friday's Spread

BY JOY HAEGG

To add to a full evening last Friday, the county spreads were held. Phelan County had an extra special feature in their program. Thomasine King sang several spirituals and popular songs. Her singing attracted the adjoining county, and so Esper girls also enjoyed Tommie's varied repertoire before the "lights out" bell.

Governor's Family Here

We all had the privilege of learning to know Mr. and Mrs. Paul Shanks and Charlie, the family of the 1949 Girls State Governor, who arrived Sunday in time to attend the tea and have dinner with us. Aren't they a grand little family, girls? It was such a pleasure to have them with us.

Staff Members

Girls of the Illini Girls State contributing staff this year included Margaret McRoberts and Julia Andrews, who gave us so many lovely poems of their own composition; Gloria Fews, Sally Joffray, Afrodite Konstans, and Eleanor Morrison who have contributed posters and cartoons and Barbara High, Elaine Spores, Carolyn Barker, Doris Davies, Mildred Myers, Dorothy Mentel, Ellen Hall, Shirley Burnett, Nancy

BY ELAINE SPIRES

Ann Peabody, the wonderful teacher of Helen Keller, once spelled into her pupils hand, "The best and most beautiful things in the world cannot be seen or even touched, but just felt in the heart." One of the many problems of our civilization is that success is measured by material wealth.

What is money when it is compared with the love a mother feels for her child or the joy experienced at seeing the first spring flower and hearing the birds singing in the trees? What are stocks and bonds compared with the knowledge that one has never owed any man? What are farms and buildings compared to the feeling one has when he tells the truth when it would have been easier to lie. When one is possessed by the craving for money, he is deaf and blind to the simple and beautiful things of life.

Why should we wish more than a comfortable living? Money will not buy the fellowship with ones fellow men in church; really working for a certain cause by far outshines a fat check in benefits to oneself.

The smile on a friendly face in a crowd of hurrying people or a policeman stopping traffic to let a little dog caught in the middle of the street cross doesn't cost any money, but they leave a nice feeling deep inside. Even such a little thing as seeing a gentleman on a crowded street car offer his seat to a crippled old woman makes a person believe that this old world isn't so bad after all. The man wouldn't waste any valuable time doing this deed but it would make him feel like whistling as he got off at his stop.

Rather than thinking of "It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the Kingdom of Heaven," I like to think of the happiness felt by the man not possessed by a desire for wealth who has time to enjoy the free things in life.

The word "Almanac" is derived from the ancient Arabian words which meant, "the weather" or "climate."

Man's Scope Must Grow Ever Larger As World Shrinks

Just as the forty-niners of 1849 wondered what their generation would be ten years hence I'm wondering what we will be like ten years hence, in 1959. What will make the typical citizen? A four passenger plane or perhaps a helicopter, a new home and all the latest gadgets to lighten the work; or will it be the man himself, his personal likes and dislikes that classify him. I don't think so.

I believe a typical citizen ten years hence will be similar to the citizen of today, even though his possessions and mode of living may change. He will be interested in his community, know his state and national civics, be well read and interested in the world and its problems, he will acquaint himself with those seeking political office and vote for those he deems most worthy; if elected to public office, he will hold it to the best of his ability. He will live in his day, but he will be interested in the future of his country—in the schools, in the youth and in their safety and protection.

I believe a typical citizen of 1959 will be interested in some sort of world organization. He must lend all his strength and beliefs to it. Just as the states gave up their sovereignty for the good of the nation, the nations must give up their sovereignty for the good of the world.

A typical citizen of 1959 will differ from a typical citizen of today mainly because even as the world grows smaller his scope, his interests and responsibilities must grow larger.

Kitten's Appeal Brings Adoption By Entire Class

"Can I come and sit with you? I'm so tired and lonely—just wandering around this great big place and I'm so mistreated wherever I go. Can't I be your mascot or just your pet? Maybe even your pal! Please don't laugh at me because I look so much out of place here. I had an idea that you wouldn't want me because I didn't get a warm reception. The janitor hit with a broom and made me cry."

These were the unspoken thoughts that were registered by a little white Angora kitten to government club in my school. The kitten put its tail in the air and sailed over to our sponsor with such a pleading air she save in, accepted him as our mascot. The kitten was given the best of care by the teenagers of the complete school which made it their business to spoil him.

Television--Do We Want It Even If We Can Get It?

Do you think you will be watching a television show in your own living room a few years from now? Television is certainly up and coming, but there are still a lot of obstacles to overcome before it will be a common thing.

Television programs are very expensive. Too expensive for small broadcasting stations, especially since stations make no profit for at least two years. The only companies which are making a profit on television now are those who make and sell the sets.

One television station can serve only an area of 50 miles in diameter. This makes the prospect for rural television appear rather dark, for so long as television is supported by advertising a large audience will be required. Stratovision, a method by which a program is picked up by an airplane, 25,000 feet above the ground and sent back to earth to cover an area 250 miles in radius, is being investigated as a probable solution to this problem.

Now comes another question—even if we can have television, do we want it? Radio, movies, book and magazine publishers and newspapers will probably lose business because of it. In recent surveys of television set owners, it was discovered that they found less time for these things. The sports promoters are also afraid of the effect of television on their profits. Last year only 42,500 fans attended the Lewis-Whitcomb fight. The stadium can hold 88,150. Why this decrease? Fans watched the bout by television. The box office take was cut in half.

Television is a new attraction in numerous taverns, however the prohibitionists have no cause for complaint. More people go to the bars, but they drink less liquor. Television has also lessened the revenue from juke-boxes. A recent poll shows that tavern keepers would be happier without television, but are afraid more money would be lost by its removal.

For Listening Or Dancing Pleasure Good Records Help

BY MARGY O'NEILL

"Listen to this record, it's really smooth, and good to dance to too." Everyone of you has undoubtedly heard and danced to many records, but have you ever stopped to think that either of these could be your hobby. Maybe you're thinking, "I only buy records because it's fun, and the only reason I dance is because, well, that's fun too." That's just what a hobby is—fun.

Every school has at least one dance during the school year, but even if this is the case and there is only one don't you usually dance when you go to the homes of your friends? Dancing is an art, not something you just do, but something you have to learn. Besides ballroom dancing, many girls have and are taking lessons in tap, toe, and modern dancing. Dancing helps you to learn to walk gracefully and to carry yourself well.

A girl who likes to dance usually enjoys listening to music, but the reverse is not always true. Many girls like to listen to music only when they are in a certain mood, but almost everyone enjoys some type of music at some time or another. A collection of records usually runs into quite a bit of money, but if you take proper care of your records they should give you good listening and dancing pleasure for some time to come.

Murphy County Awarded Broom; Sweeps Election

The citizens of Murphy County were thrilled when they were awarded the Golden Broom for the cleanest county the other day.

Now these same citizens are probably the proudest and most honored at Illini Girls State; for their own girl, Marilyn Shanks, was elected Governor. The county is proud of all their citizens who were candidates for state offices. Joyce Berk was elected States Attorney; Nancy Raab, Senator; Carolyn Curtis and Carol Nelson representatives; Jeannine Wooten is clerk of the House of Representatives. Election day was a happy one for the Irish—Carol Nelson.

His wife was the former Pearl Dunn. In addition to her, he is survived by two sons, Earl and Bernard, both of this city, and a daughter, Mrs. Irene McNichols of Decatur. Remains will be returned to Springfield.

The single-ring ceremony which united in marriage Miss Nadine Worrall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Worrall, 876 Routt street, and John T. Grogan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Grogan, 711 S. Church street, took place Monday at 2:30 p. m. at the First Baptist church.

The Rev. Clair E. Malcomson performed the service at an altar decorated with flowers, ferns and candles. Miss Wanda Harrell, soloist for the occasion, sang "Because" and "Through the Years." Her accompanist was Mrs. Laura Smith, who played the wedding marches and "Ave Maria" during the ceremony.

Attending the couple were Miss Theone Faust as maid of honor and Russell Scroggins as best man. The ushers were Robert Grogan, brother of the bridegroom, Gerald Worrall, the bride's brother, and Harlan DeGroot.

The bride was attired in a white street-length dress, with which she wore matching accessories. She carried a cascade bouquet of lilies. A yellow dress with white accessories was worn by the maid of honor, who carried a cascade bouquet of yellow and white gladioli.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the social rooms of the church. Serving was done by Mrs. Perry Roberts, Jeris Ann Bates and Mary Carl.

The couple then left on a short wedding trip, after which they will be at home on East Morton avenue. The bride graduated from Jacksonville high school with the class of 1949.

Her husband, a 1945 graduate of Jacksonville high school, attended Illinois college and served with the U. S. Navy during World War II. He is proprietor of the Pine Cone Shop.

The flag should be displayed during school days in or near every schoolhouse.

Catholic Women
Hold Recollection
Day On Sunday

The Rev. James Suddes, director of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith in the Springfield diocese, conducted a successful day of recollection, or one-day retreat, for the women of the Jacksonville Diocesan Council of Catholic Women at the Church of Our Saviour on Sunday, June 26.

Father Suddes, a student at Routt High school during the days when the present home of the Dominican nuns, St. Rose Convent, was a boarding school for boys, was one of many Springfield boys attending high school there and is well known in Jacksonville.

The day began with registration at Our Saviour grade school at 10 o'clock, followed by a series of inspirational talks interspersed with periods intended for private devotions. Luncheon was served at Forman Hall at noon by a committee of men composed of J. Frank Carson, Louis Cain, Joe Farran, John Hall, and Clarence Neuner. Mrs. J. T. Flynn read selections from J. T. Keller's book, "You Can Change The World."

The session closed with a holy hour and benediction of the blessed sacrament. Plans for the day were made by Mrs. T. P. Leahy, Ashland, deanery president, and Mrs. J. A. Haynes, Kampsville, deanery chairman of retreats. The committee in charge of local arrangements was headed by Mrs. Reginald Sauer, grand regent of Court Our Saviour, Catholic Daughters of America, who had as her assistants, Mrs. J. T. Flynn and Mrs. Paul Hogan. Mrs. Charles Ryan, luncheon chairman, was assisted by Mrs. Frank Carson, Mrs. A. L. Yording, Mrs. Roy Tholen, and Miss Gladys Hamilton. Miss Grace Hamilton and Miss Frances Gorman were in charge of registration.

Ways to Save

If you were a South American Indian from the upper Sipi River in western Colombia, your "savings" would consist of sun-dried cuca leaves, which you would be most careful to dry. Dried cuca leaves have a market, or "savings" value because when they are chewed they make you almost tireless at work — constantly adding to your strength.

Savings at Jacksonville Savings & Loan Assn. are somewhat like cuca leaves. They constantly add to themselves by earning a profit. And too, they "stand by you" in time of need.

Moose Baseballers Suffer First Loss In 2-0 Shutout

The Jacksonville Moose diamond-clubbers slipped on a muddy field and dropped their first game of the Illinois Valley schedule to the Havana Glass Bar nine in a 7-inning tussle there Sunday afternoon.

The 3-0 shutout, administered by the Havana club, shoved the locals back into a tie for first place with the Beardstown entry. Each club has marked a single loss. Jacksonville whipped Beardstown last Sunday to reign supreme in the circuit for a short week before going back into a tie for the top place.

John Maynard went all the way for the Moose aggregation. The right-hander allowed only 3 hits but his Moose mates were able to collect only one, on a single by Fortado, and they were blanked in the scoring column.

Moose-Alton Tilt Ends In 10-10 Tie At Southside Park

The old wounds caused by differences between daylight time and standard time were reopened last night as the Jacksonville Moose softball club battled the visiting Alton Esquires to a 10-10 tie before the game was called at the end of the eighth, still tied, because the Alton club was running too far behind schedule.

The Moose outfit Alton 10-8 and under-erred the invaders 4-6. The only place they came up short was in the run column when they failed to push the necessary winning rally across and were forced to settle for a 10-10 tie, via football rules.

Teasers started the mound assignment for the Moose. He was relieved by Pete Lynn in the sixth frame.

House of Clay Wins

The House of Clay batsmen slugged out a 17-3 victory over a spur-of-the-moment hauled and patched-up K. of C. ball club.

Southpaw Stoney Jackson registered the win for the Clays. Jake McGrath and Bud Hall shared the pitching assignment for the K. C.'s. Jackson, besides turning in a neat twirling job, blasted a home run against the scoreboard in left-center field. Chris Copeland, House of Clay rightfielder, cleared the left field wall with a second four-master.

Shroeder Keeps U.S. In Wimbledon Tourney

London, June 27.—(P)—Ted Schroeder came from two sets behind in a storming stretch finish today to keep the American flag flying in the semi-finals of the Wimbledon men's singles tennis championship.

Trailing three games to none in the fifth set, the Californian from La Crescenta eliminated the young Australian champion, Frank Sedgman, 3-6, 6-8, 6-3, 6-2, 9-7.

But the other Yank was lost to British Commonwealth stars in broiling heat that sapped their energies.

John Bromwich, veteran Australian Davis Cup captain, eliminated defending champion Bob Falkenburg of Beverly Hills, Calif., 3-6, 9-11, 6-0, 6-0, 6-4.

Eric Sturgess, the South African stylist who was runner-up in the 1948 U. S. championships, ousted Frankie Parker of Los Angeles, 3-6, 6-4, 3-6, 6-1, 6-3.

Jaroslav Drobny, the stout Czechoslovakian lefthander, captured the other berth in the last four by tripping Geoff Brown of Australia, 2-6, 7-5, 1-6, 6-2, 6-4.

The survivors clash in this order Wednesday: Drobny vs. Bromwich and Sturgess vs. Schroeder.

Only the fighting heart of top-seeded Schroeder kept the United States from getting shut out of the semi-finals for the first time since before the war. His performance against a classy foe before a partisan audience of 7,000 on court 1 was brilliant.

Twice the 21-year-old Australian had the match point against service in the fifth set—at 5-4 and 6-5. Each time Schroeder, famous for pulling out gruelling five-set matches, scorcher in earned points with placements to defy an upset.

The American favorite to succeed to Falkenburg's surrendered crown avoided trouble in the last four games. He broke Sedgman's service at 30 in the 15th game and easily held his own in the 16th to end it.

Dealers Blank House Of Clay Nine 6-0; Pepsi's Win

A record crowd saw Pepsi Cola and Implement Dealer nines chalk up victories in their respective leagues at the Southside diamond last night.

Softball fans, hoping to escape the summer heat, packed the local park to capacity. And, they saw two nip-and-tuck ball games as the local lads put on an all-Jacksonville show.

The Red & White "B" league club was nicked 12-7 by the Pepsi in the preliminary tussle.

Heaton Wins For Dealers
Dale Heaton spun a three-hit shutout against the improved House of Clay nine to slow Clays men in their upswing and register a 6-0 win for the Dealers.

Tom Nesbitt, the new H of C flinger, was in good form, allowing only six Dealer clubbers to hit safely and walking a single player. Four House of Clay errors added greatly to the Dealer cause.

Heaton was at his best as he held the Clays men to a trio of hits and flied brilliantly to add a definite fifth man to the Dealer infield. He cut off several sure H of C hits with nice stops.

Wheat Falls Off In Late Trading; Corn Is Strong

Chicago, June 27.—(P)—Wheat fell off in the latter part of the session on the Board of Trade today. The bread cereal showed some strength during the first hour, but heavy arrivals of cash grain at southwestern markets and easiness in cash prices halted the advance.

In contrast, corn acted well all the day. Outlook for the new crop was considered excellent, but some buying entered the grain on the feeling futures were far under potential loan value and much corn will be fed to hogs at present attractive corn-hog ratios.

Receipts were: wheat 123 cars, corn 153, oats 101, Rye 1, barley 14 soybeans 43.

Wheat closed $1.96; lower to $1.94; higher, July $1.94; Rye was $1.14; higher, July $1.14; Rye was $1.14; lower to $1.12; higher, July $1.12; Rye was $1.12; higher, July $1.12; soybeans were $1.12; lower to $1.10; higher, July $1.10; and lard was unchanged to 10 cents a hundred pounds lower, July $11.05.

By Whitney Martin

New York, June 27.—(P)—If you owned a team made up of the high-est paid players in baseball you'd imagine you would be a little worried right now. You might think one of the athletes were slightly overpaid.

This "if" team would have Walker Cooper catching. Bob Feller pitching. Johnny Mize on first base, Joe Gordon on second, Bob Elliott on third, Lou Boudreau at short, and Ted Williams, Joe DiMaggio and Stan Musial in the outfield.

We're pretty sure they are the highest paid men at their respective positions, and although we have no means of knowing their exact salaries we imagine the payroll would hover around the half-million dollar mark.

Put Them In Salary Brackets

At a guess we'd put DiMaggio, Williams and Feller in the really high bracket of $80,000 or more. We'd put Boudreau in a special class just under them, say $65,000, and bunch Mize, Gordon, Cooper, Musial and Elliott in a lower group.

What would you be getting for your money? Well, here's about the way it sizes up right now:

Cooper, with a fine slugging record two years ago and not so good last year, was hitting less than 200 when he was traded by the Giants to the Reds not so long ago. Since joining the Reds he has shown signs of returning to his former class, and may earn his stipend yet.

Feller, up to a week ago, was anything but the Feller of old. His record was something like two victories against six defeats. He recently has shown signs of returning to his former effectiveness, however, and could very well make the Indians a repeater in the pennant quest. In that case he would be worth any salary he received.

Johnny Mize, with an impressive history as a reliable slugger, was hitting an anemic .237 about a week ago, and it got so bad that Leo Durocher benched him. That's practically bad catching. Dumb Dan Morgan, the not-so-dumb ex-fight manager, when he wasn't talking, was earning $50,000 a year.

Gordon Is Earning Wages

Joe Gordon has been playing his usual slashing fielding game for the Indians, and hitting hard and often, also as usual. He seems to be earning every cent paid him.

Elliott, with two fine years directly behind him, has been in an unaccountable slump this year, and if you were to pick the most valuable third baseman right now it certainly wouldn't be the big Brave. Boudreau has been off on his hitting, with a mark of .243 at a recent check. That compares rather unfavorably with his .355 mark of last year, but we still think he is worth all he is getting. He doubled as manager, fields brilliantly at any of three positions, and is an inspirational leader. We wouldn't worry too much about him.

DiMaggio Is Unfortunate Bust

DiMaggio, of course, is a total bust to date through no fault of his own. His heel injury, suffered in line of duty, has kept him out of the lineup and to date his $80,000-plus salary has been a total loss.

Musial started slowly, but has been picking up speed rapidly of late, his bat being responsible for the tremendous spurt of the Cardinals. He'll earn his money, all right.

In comparison with most of the others, Williams isn't being paid enough. He's among the leading hitters, leads in runs batted in and home runs, and is fielding brilliantly. Who could ask for anything more?

Cubs Dump Cards 6-4 In Error-Riddled Melee

St. Louis, June 27.—(P)—Hank Sauer of the Birds' 10 hits and batted in the fifth inning to give the last-place Chicago Cubs the margin by which they defeated the red-hot St. Louis Cardinals in an error-riddled game tonight, 6 to 4.

It was the only game scheduled in the major leagues and dropped the Cards a full game back of the pace-setting Brooklyn Dodgers.

The contest started out to be a comedy of errors, each team committing three in the first four innings. Every run scored in those frames was tainted.

But there was nothing tainted about Sauer's four-base clout in the fifth. The ball cleared the left field bleacher wall and landed in Sullivan avenue. Gene March, who had singled, scored ahead of Hank Sauer had previously singled in a run in a three-run rally in the third.

Meanwhile, the Cards kept pecking away at their old nemesis, Johnny Schmitz and finally forced his retirement in the seventh. Walt Garagiola, c 0 0 0
Dubiell came in with two out and a one on base and retired pinch hitter Ron Northey on a fly to Sauer. Sauer, p 1 0 0
Dubiell held the Birds hitless in the eighth and ninth.

Gerry Staley started for the Cards, but was a victim of poor support as well as Sauer's big bat. Fred Martin, H Mexican league jumper, who recently rejoined the Cards, made his first mound appearance and retired the Cubs in order in the sixth and seventh. Bill Reeder also stopped the Bruins cold, but the damage had been done.

NEW YORK YANKEES BEAT THE GIANTS IN 5-3 EXHIBITION

New York, June 27.—(P)—Joe DiMaggio played the entire nine innings but did not contribute to the New York Yankees' 5-3 victory over the New York Giants in an exhibition game at the Yankee Stadium tonight. Making his first appearance of the season, the ailing Yankee outfielder popped out on all his four trips to the plate. The Yankees broke a 3-3 tie in the eighth when Kirby Elgie walked two men with the bases loaded.

CLIPPED ANGEL

Copyright, 1949, NEA SERVICE, INC.

By Clive Grierson Cornish

THE STORY: Mike McTag, a mining engineer, has been engaged by Cory Parrish, beautiful and high-spirited daughter of the late Parabolized Parrish, an old friend, to find out why the Dark Angel mine has fallen off in production. Mike, with his own ideas that women should not work in mines, is simply playing out. Facts given him by "Uncle" Jake Whinnaker, mill superintendent, and Archie Trank, who is in charge of the underground work, convince him. But Mike goes ahead to check the samples. Secretly Mike is sending off another batch of samples to his office in San Francisco for a separate check, just as a matter of principle. Cory goes with Mike as he ships the samples.

leave me the key to the convertible. There wasn't much romance in the air—we were both dog-tired—and, besides, all the way home I was trying to figure angles.

It was 2 o'clock in the morning when I'd finished taking my third set of samples and 4 a. m. before I got to Briscoe again.

I had to sit around till 7 o'clock before the station opened for business, and then I put "Lot A" on the tags I'd made out the previous evening, and "Lot B" on the tags for the stuff I'd just brought in. I didn't want Effie making any mistakes about which was which.

I got back to the boarding house in time for a late breakfast and then turned in for what sleep I could get.

ABOUT 3 o'clock in the afternoon I got up, shaved, ate another breakfast and dropped around to the assay shed to see what Riggs had got for me.

He gave me a sheet of paper with the figures, and it was pretty much what I had expected. The values for the different levels didn't vary more than four bits each way and the average for the whole thing worked out to $4.82 a ton.

I shoved the paper in my pocket and sat down on a box.

"What's your theory about this ore trouble?" I asked.

He fidgeted a bit before he answered. "I couldn't say—I hardly ever go underground—but from what I hear I guess the mine's playing out, Mr. McTag."

Second-hand guesses weren't much good to me. I pulled out and went over to the mill where I found Uncle Jake staring mournfully at a steam gauge.

"When's your next train of loaded cars due out of the mine?" I asked.

He glanced at his watch and figured it would be any minute now, so we climbed up a ladder to where the light-gauge track ran out from the portal to the mill bunkers. The roar of the ball-mill was deafening and Uncle Jake had to shout in my ear.

"When the bunkers are full like this we hold the stuff in the cars." I understood what he meant. Ore was being mined faster than it could be milled, which was the reason they ran three shifts in the mill but only two in the mine itself.

A MOMENT later a battery locomotive crawled out of the mine, followed by a train of 10 loaded cars. The driver nursed them along until he'd spotted them over the bunkers.

He uncoupled, left them there, and beelied off to pick up 10 empties from a nearby spur.

I moved along the catwalk and glanced at the contents of the cars. Nine of them contained mine-run low-grade, but the 10th contained high-grade from the paystreak, lovely stuff, running, from the looks of it, around 30 or 40 bucks a ton in copper alone.

"Sweetener," Uncle Jake yelled in my ear, and pointed directly below us. I looked down and saw where a plank partition made a separate bunker at one end, and this end compartment was filled with the high-grade.

It was standard milling practice. You kept your millheads at a fairly constant value by feeding it the rich stuff as required. We climbed down and Uncle Jake followed me into the comparative quiet of the mill office.

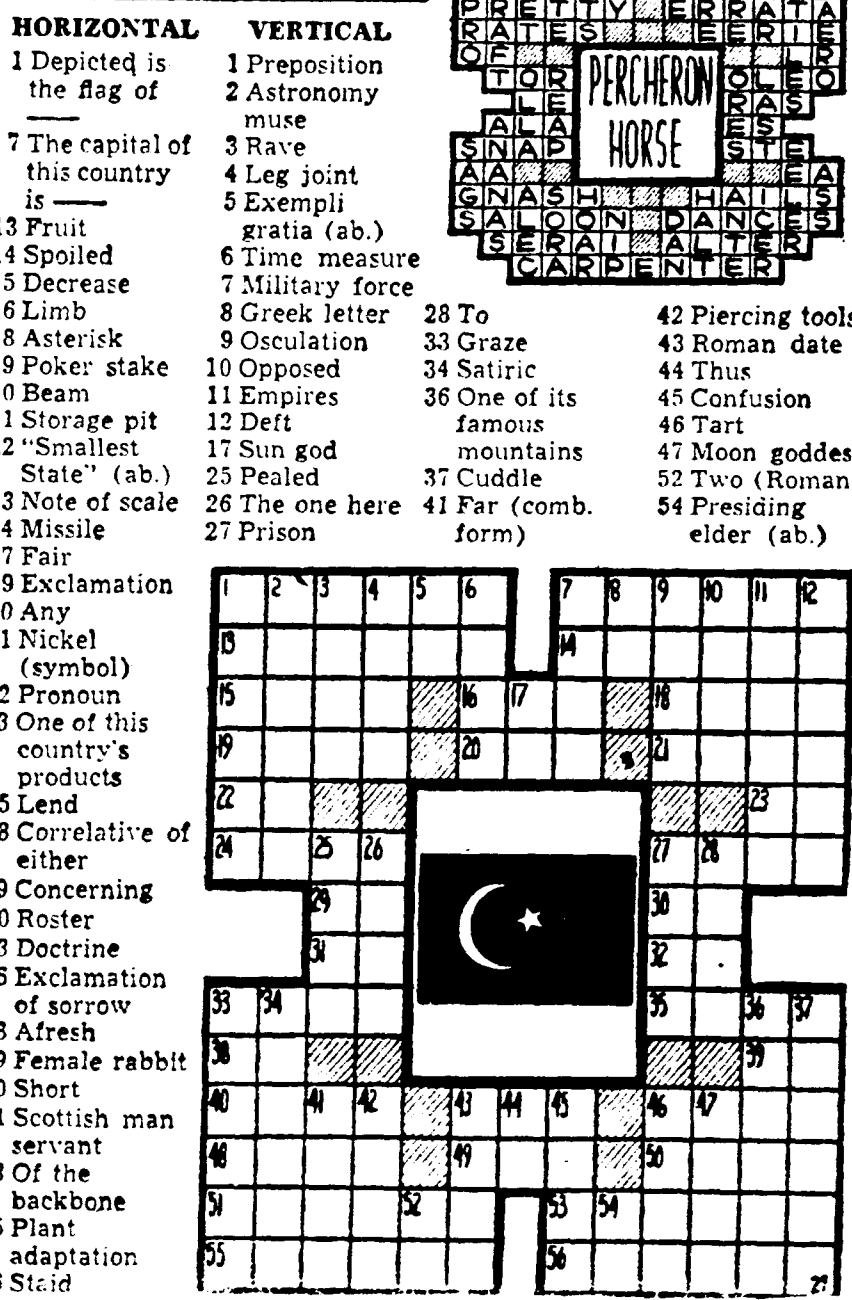

"It would be wonderful if you could find another vein for us, Mr. McTag," he said. "At my age it won't be easy to start all over again somewhere else." He tried for a smile but didn't quite make it.

VACATION FUN takes on a new meaning for tourists whose cars are virtually traveling summer cottages. The economical 1949 Nash is equipped with twin convertible beds that may be made up in seconds. Latches at the base of the front divided seat backs are released, then the back of the seat is lowered to a stop which has been swung out from under the rear seat cushion. All the trunk space remains available for luggage and special screens permit full ventilation. The twin beds are a full five feet wide.

Council Tells Owners That Swine Must Live Outside City Limits

The excellent hogs raised in Morgan county are well known throughout the Cornbelt, but from July 15 on they'll have to be raised outside the city limits of Jacksonville, the city council decided unanimously at the regular meeting held Monday night.

Alderman Brune of the health department brought up the subject. He observed that the ordinance prohibiting hog raising in the city hadn't been enforced for a long time. This has been especially true ever since the meat shortage days of World War II. Residents knew it was against the ordinance to raise hogs, but they have been permitted to do so, Brune continued.

Virginia Mechanic Released On Bail Following Wreck

Samuel Hall, 27 year old Virginia automobile mechanic, charged with reckless driving and leaving the scene of an accident late Sunday night, was taken to County court Monday, and released under $500 bail. He was brought here following his arrest by State Patrolmen Batley and Ring. The case will be continued.

The accident occurred at the intersection of Routes 100 and 104 southeast of Meredosia.

Police said that Hall, driving a 1937 Buick east on Route 104, collided with a 1947 Buick driven by William C. Schall of Rushville, who was headed north. Hall, they said, drove on.

Schall flagged down a passing motorist and they discovered Hall's automobile parked a few miles east of the intersection. Schall returned to Meredosia and notified the state police officers. They arrested Hall and brought him to Jacksonville.

The front end of the Schall car was considerably damaged. It was towed to Rushville.

Two Anniversaries Marked At Dinner At DeFrates Home

Sunday, June 26, was a red-letter day for the DeFrates family. On that day, wedding anniversaries were observed by Mr. and Mrs. Roy N. DeFrates and their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Rosten DeFrates.

For the elder couple, it marked 41 years of married life. For the younger couple, it was their first anniversary.

The occasion was celebrated with a family dinner at the home of the parents at 932 Doolin avenue. The senior DeFrates really got acquainted back in August of 1906 on a fishing trip on the Illinois River in Peoria. A severe wind storm came up, causing their boat to overturn in about 14 feet of water.

As the future bride came to the surface, the gallant Mr. DeFrates caught her and swam about 40 feet to the safety of a fallen tree, where they remained until they were rescued by another couple.

Four children were born to the elder Mr. and Mrs. DeFrates. One son, Edgar N. DeFrates, died in 1941. Another son, Billy DeFrates, was killed in action on Oct. 1, 1943, while serving in Holland with the airborne infantry.

Their two living children are Mrs. Maxine Lindstromberg and Rosten DeFrates both of this city. Rosten served with the 8th Air Force in the European theatre and made all five invasions in that area. He was honorably discharged in 1945.

There are also four grandchildren, Jimmy Lee and Connie Lou DeFrates of Concord and Janice Lee and Tommy Joe Lindstromberg of this city.

Present for the dinner Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Rosten DeFrates, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Lindstromberg and children, Janice Lee and Tommy Joe, Miss Doris Clayton and Rudy Trowbridge.
